The League will not make housing reservations for attendees. We recommend registering for conference and making hotel reservations early because room blocks are limited. If you are planning on staying past conference please make those reservations as well – the University of Iowa hosts Ball State that weekend.

Headquarters Hotel

Conference workshops, exhibits and general sessions will take place at the Coralville Marriot Hotel and Conference Center. The Marriot also serves as the headquarter hotel. Attendees must contact the Marriot directly.

Only city officials who are registered for conference and their guests will be allowed in our block at the headquarter hotel. Attendees must submit a conference registration to keep a room in the headquarter hotel. We ask that attendees respect our policy and not share this information with non-city officials or vendors; they are not allowed within our room block at the headquarter hotel.
